Elm Class News

Hello everyone!

We have finally made it to half-term after a short but action-packed time.

We have been very busy writing our independent stories this week based on the lovely text 'The Marvellous Fluffy Squishy Itty Bitty' by Beatrice Alemagna. Our handwriting is looking really beautiful, and we have chosen some wonderful vocabulary to really excite the reader.

We have thoroughly enjoyed our history topic of Brunel this half term, and we were thrilled to showcase our learning to our school friends and families in our class assembly this morning.

We are very proud of the observational artwork based on our history that we have produced with Miss Guildford; we have a real keen eye for detail!

We are looking forward to a well-deserved rest and discovering what new learning awaits in Spring Term 2. There are so many memories to share of our learning this term and here are a few photos to sum up the fun.

Well done Elm Class for a wonderful assembly this morning!

On Thursday a group from Year 5 competed in a Basketball Tournament at Kingsmead School. Congratulations to everyone who took part!

Help needed!

If you work in a job that helps people, such as a vet, policeman etc, Ash class are looking for volunteers who could come into school to talk about their job and how they help people. Please drop Ash class an email at Ash.Class@TrullSchool.co.uk.

The salon de thé will be open for business Monday 26th - Thursday 29th February from drop off time until 9:30 am in Lower Yew class. Please call in for your breakfast and enjoy some coffee, tea, croissants, pains au chocolat and other tasty French treats!

Our chosen charities for this year are: Young Minds, Cancer Research UK, RSPCA and Water Aid.

ATTENDANCE

The class with the best attendance this week is:
Maple Class

Donations needed

Here in school we store some spare clothes in case they are required, and we are in particular need of school tights (specifically for KS1). If you have any which can be donated to us, please pop them into the school office.

Many thanks

Sadly we are saying farewell to Miss Murray this term. We wish you all the best in your new job.
